RE: Crowell, Weedon & Co., Respondent
Broker-Dealer
CRD No. 193

Pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216 of FINRA's Code of Procedure, Crowell, Weedon & Co. (the "firm") submits this Letter of Acceptance, Waiver and Consent ("AWC") for the purpose of proposing a settlement of the alleged rule violations described below. This AWC is submitted on the condition that, if accepted, FINRA will not bring any future actions against the firm alleging violations based on the same factual findings described herein.

I.

ACCEPTANCE AND CONSENT

- A. The firm hereby accepts and consents, without admitting or denying the findings, and solely for the purposes of this proceeding and any other proceeding brought by or on behalf of FINRA, or to which FINRA is a party, prior to a hearing and without an adjudication of any issue of law or fact, to the entry of the following findings by FINRA:

BACKGROUND

The firm has been a member of FINRA since October 16, 1936, and its registration remains in effect.

RELEVANT DISCIPLINARY HISTORY

The firm has no relevant disciplinary history.

SUMMARY

This matter is a result of the Trading and Market Making Surveillance staff of the Department of Market Regulation's review of the firm's compliance, during the period September 5 and 6, 2007, with registration requirements and related supervision.

FACTS AND VIOLATIVE CONDUCT

1. The firm failed to require that three persons acting in a supervisory capacity with respect to the firm's securities business obtain the Series 24 as required by NASD Membership and Registration Rule 1022. One of the individuals at the time held a Series 1 and another held a Series 8. The conduct described in this paragraph constitutes separate and distinct violations of NASD Conduct Rule 2110 and NASD Membership and Registration Rule 1021.
2. The firm's supervisory system concerning registration did not provide for supervision reasonably designed to achieve compliance with respect to the applicable securities laws and regulations, and the Rules of NASD. Specifically, the firm's supervisory system did not include written supervisory procedures providing for: (1) the identification of the person(s) responsible for supervision with respect to the rules applicable to registration; (2) a statement of the supervisory step(s) to be taken by the identified person(s); (3) a statement as to how often such person(s) should take such step(s); and (4) a statement as to how the completion of the step(s) included in the written supervisory procedures should be documented. The conduct described in this paragraph constitutes a violation of NASD Rules 2110 and 3010.

OTHER FACTORS

B. The firm also consents to the imposition of the following sanctions:

- A censure.
- A $40,000 fine (comprised of $25,000 for the registration violations and $15,000 for the supervision violations).
- An undertaking to: (1) ensure that all of the firm's employees are properly registered; (2) ensure that any of the three individuals described above who remains an employee of the firm does not act in a supervisory capacity until that employee obtains a Series 24 license; and (3) revise the firm's written supervisory procedures to clearly designate the individual(s) responsible for supervision of the firm's trading, the supervisory step(s) to be taken by such individual(s), how often such step(s) should be taken and how the completion of the step(s) should be documented. Within 30 business days of acceptance of this AWC by the National Adjudicatory Council ("NAC"), a registered principal of the Respondent shall submit to the COMPLIANCE ASSISTANT, LEGAL SECTION, MARKET REGULATION DEPARTMENT, 9509 KEY WEST AVENUE, ROCKVILLE, MD 20850, a signed, dated letter, or an e-mail from a work-related account of the registered principal to MarketRegulationComp@finra.org, providing the following information:

- (a) a reference to this matter;
- (b) a representation that the firm has revised its written supervisory procedures to address the deficiencies described in paragraph A.2 and the date the revised procedures were implemented; and
- (c) a representation that the firm is taking steps to ensure that all of the firm's employees are properly registered and specifically that any of the three individuals described above who remains an employee of the firm is taking steps to obtain a Series 24 license.

The firm agrees to pay the monetary sanction(s) upon notice that this AWC has been accepted and that such payment(s) are due and payable. It has submitted an Election of Payment form showing the method by which it proposes to pay the fine imposed.

The firm specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim that it is unable to pay, now or at any time hereafter, the monetary sanction(s) imposed in this matter.

The sanctions imposed herein shall be effective on a date set by FINRA staff.

II.

WAIVER OF PROCEDURAL RIGHTS

The firm specifically and voluntarily waives the following rights granted under FINRA's Code of Procedure:

- A. To have a Complaint issued specifying the allegations against the firm;
- B. To be notified of the Complaint and have the opportunity to answer the allegations in writing;
- C. To defend against the allegations in a disciplinary hearing before a hearing panel, to have a written record of the hearing made and to have a written decision issued; and
- D. To appeal any such decision to the NAC and then to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and a U.S. Court of Appeals.

Further, the firm specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim bias or prejudgment of the General Counsel, the NAC, or any member of the NAC, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including acceptance or rejection of this AWC.

The firm further specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim that a person violated the ex parte prohibitions of FINRA Rule 9143 or the separation of functions prohibitions of FINRA Rule 9144, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including its acceptance or rejection.

III.

The firm may not take any action or make or permit to be made any public statement, including in regulatory filings or otherwise, denying, directly or indirectly, any finding in this AWC or create the impression that the AWC is without factual basis. The firm may not take any position in any proceeding brought by or on behalf of FINRA, or to which FINRA is a party, that is inconsistent with any part of this AWC. Nothing in this provision affects the firm’s right to take legal or factual positions in litigation or other legal proceedings in which FINRA is not a party.
- D. The firm may attach a Corrective Action Statement to this AWC that is a statement of demonstrable corrective steps taken to prevent future misconduct. The firm understands that it may not deny the charges or make any statement that is inconsistent with the AWC in this Statement. This Statement does not constitute factual or legal findings by FINRA, nor does it reflect the views of FINRA or its staff.

The undersigned, on behalf of the Firm, certifies that a person duly authorized to act on its behalf has read and understands all of the provisions of this AWC and has been given a full opportunity to ask questions about it; that it has agreed to the AWC's provisions voluntarily; and that no offer, threat, inducement, or promise of any kind, other than the terms set forth herein and the prospect of avoiding the issuance of a Complaint, has been made to induce the firm to submit it.
