RE: Auriga USA, LLC, Respondent
Broker-Dealer
CRD No. 121731

Pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216 of FINRA's Code of Procedure, Auriga USA, LLC (the "firm") submits this Letter of Acceptance, Waiver and Consent ("AWC") for the purpose of proposing a settlement of the alleged rule violations described below. This AWC is submitted on the condition that, if accepted, FINRA will not bring any future actions against the firm alleging violations based on the same factual findings described herein.

I.

ACCEPTANCE AND CONSENT

- A. The firm hereby accepts and consents, without admitting or denying the findings, and solely for the purposes of this proceeding and any other proceeding brought by or on behalf of FINRA, or to which FINRA is a party, prior to a hearing and without an adjudication of any issue of law or fact, to the entry of the following findings by FINRA:

BACKGROUND

The firm has been a member of FINRA since November 20, 2002, and its registration remains in effect. The firm does not have any disciplinary history.

SUMMARY

In connection with this matter 20130377885, which is the result of a TRACE Securitized Products Sweep, the TRACE Agency/SP Team of the Department of Market Regulation reviewed the firm's compliance with the requirement to accurately report execution times in TRACE-eligible Securitized Products in compliance with FINRA Rule 6730(c)(8), during the period of April 1, 2013, through June 30, 2013 (the "review period").

FACTS AND VIOLATIVE CONDUCT

1. During the review period, the firm failed to report to TRACE the correct time of trade execution for 64 transactions in TRACE-eligible Securitized Products. These inaccurate reports constituted 15.75 percent of the 382 matched inter-dealer reports that the firm submitted to TRACE during the review period. The conduct described in this paragraph constituted separate and distinct violations of FINRA Rule 6730(c)(8).

2. During the review period, the firm failed to show the correct time of execution on the memoranda of 64 brokerage orders. The conduct described in this paragraph constituted separate and distinct violations of Rule 17a-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and FINRA Rule 4511(a).

B. The firm also consents to the imposition of the following sanctions:

A censure and a fine of $10,000 ($7,500 for the FINRA Rule 6730(c)(8) violations and $2,500 for the Securities Exchange Act Rule 17a-3 and FINRA Rule 4511(a) violations).

The firm agrees to pay the monetary sanctions upon notice that this AWC has been accepted and that such payments are due and payable. It has submitted an Election of Payment form showing the method by which it proposes to pay the fine imposed.

The firm specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim that it is unable to pay, now or at any time hereafter, the monetary sanctions imposed in this matter.

The sanctions imposed herein shall be effective on a date set by FINRA staff.

II.

WAIVER OF PROCEDURAL RIGHTS

The firm specifically and voluntarily waives the following rights granted under FINRA's Code of Procedure:

- A. To have a Complaint issued specifying the allegations against the firm;
- B. To be notified of the Complaint and have the opportunity to answer the allegations in writing;
- C. To defend against the allegations in a disciplinary hearing before a hearing panel, to have a written record of the hearing made and to have a written decision issued; and
- D. To appeal any such decision to the National Adjudicatory Council ("NAC") and then to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and a U.S. Court of Appeals.

Further, the firm specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim bias or prejudgment of the General Counsel, the NAC, or any member of the NAC, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including acceptance or rejection of this AWC.

The firm further specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim that a person violated the ex parte prohibitions of FINRA Rule 9143 or the separation of functions prohibitions of FINRA Rule 9144, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including its acceptance or rejection.

III.
OTHER MATTERS

The firm understands that:

- A. Submission of this AWC is voluntary and will not resolve this matter unless and until it has been reviewed and accepted by the NAC, a Review Subcommittee of the NAC, or the Office of Disciplinary Affairs ("ODA"), pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216;
- B. If this AWC is not accepted, its submission will not be used as evidence to prove any of the allegations against the firm; and
- C. If accepted:
 - 1. this AWC will become part of the firm's permanent disciplinary record and may be considered in any future actions brought by FINRA or any other regulator against the firm;
 - 2. this AWC will be made available through FINRA's public disclosure program in response to public inquiries about the firm's disciplinary record;
 - 3. FINRA may make a public announcement concerning this agreement and the subject matter thereof in accordance with FINRA Rule 8313; and
 - 4. The firm may not take any action or make or permit to be made any public statement, including in regulatory filings or otherwise, denying, directly or indirectly, any finding in this AWC or create the impression that the AWC is without factual basis. The firm may not take any position in any proceeding brought by or on behalf of FINRA, or to which FINRA is a party, that is inconsistent with any part of this AWC. Nothing in this provision affects the firm's: (i) testimonial obligations; or (ii) right to take legal or factual positions in litigation or other legal proceedings in which FINRA is not a party.
- D. The firm may attach a Corrective Action Statement to this AWC that is a statement of demonstrable corrective steps taken to prevent future misconduct. The firm understands that it may not deny the charges or make any statement that is inconsistent with the AWC in this Statement. This Statement does not constitute factual or legal findings by FINRA, nor does it reflect the views of FINRA or its staff.

The undersigned, on behalf of the Firm, certifies that a person duly authorized to act on its behalf has read and understands all of the provisions of this AWC and has been given a full opportunity to ask questions about it; that it has agreed to the AWC's provisions voluntarily; and that no offer, threat, inducement, or promise of any kind, other than the terms set forth herein and the prospect of avoiding the issuance of a Complaint, has been made to induce the firm to submit it.

Re: STAR No. 20130377885 – Corrective Action Statement

Dear Mr. Warshawsky:

In connection with the proposed Letter of Acceptance, Waiver and Consent (“AWC”), Auriga USA, LLC (“Auriga”, the “Firm” or the “Respondent”) submits this Corrective Action Statement with respect to the deficiencies noted in the above-referenced examination for consideration in accepting the AWC. The actions described below were implemented at Auriga promptly as the purported trade reporting issues were brought to our attention.

Internal Controls

The Firm has implemented new internal controls related to the determination of what is considered to be a trade between Auriga and another dealer (collectively “parties”) in a TRACE securitized product. The Auriga trader will confirm the “execution” time with the counterparty dealer and note the “execution” time on the Bloomberg trade ticket. Once both parties have consummated a trade and are in agreement with the execution time, the trader will provide the terms and conditions of the trade to an order clerk.

The order clerk will then submit the trade information to Bloomberg TOMS, including the manual entry of the “execution” time as noted on the Bloomberg trade ticket, and then subsequently Bloomberg will submit the information to the Trace Reporting and Compliance Engine (“TRACE”).

Post Trade Review

The Firm will conduct a daily review of the Trade Reporting and Quotation Service ("TRAQS") to compare the reported execution times to ensure they are accurate. If the reported execution times differ between the counterparties by more than fifteen (15) minutes, the compliance reviewer will conduct additional analysis, including discussing the specific trade with the Auriga trader to determine where the discrepancy lies.

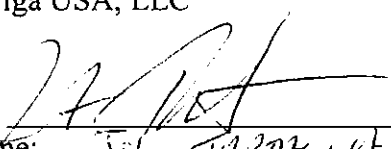

If after conducting the additional analysis, the compliance reviewer determines that Auriga should amend the trade report, the compliance reviewer will instruct the operations department of Auriga to send corrected data to TRACE.

Training and Education

The compliance department of Auriga has conducted training and education meetings with the traders and order clerks to discuss the nature of the TRACE deficiencies, gaining a better understanding with the nuances involved in determining the execution time, ensuring the identified execution time is accurately entered into Bloomberg TOMS and fostering an environment of discussing transactions when questions arise related to the agreed upon execution time in this negotiated market.

This Corrective Action Statement is submitted by the Respondent. It does not constitute factual or legal findings by FINRA, nor does it reflect the views of FINRA, or its staff.

Respectfully submitted,
Respondent
