RE: UBS Financial Services Inc. (Respondent)
Member Firm
CRD No. 8174

Pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216, Respondent UBS Financial Services Inc. (UBS) submits this Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent (AWC) for the purpose of proposing a settlement of the alleged rule violations described below. This AWC is submitted on the condition that, if accepted, FINRA will not bring any future actions against UBS alleging violations based on the same factual findings described in this AWC.

I.

ACCEPTANCE AND CONSENT

- A. Respondent hereby accepts and consents, without admitting or denying the findings and solely for the purposes of this proceeding and any other proceeding brought by or on behalf of FINRA, or to which FINRA is a party, prior to a hearing and without an adjudication of any issue of law or fact, to the entry of the following findings by FINRA:

BACKGROUND

UBS, with its predecessor, Paine Webber & Company, has been a FINRA member firm since 1936. UBS is a full-service brokerage firm headquartered in Weehawken, New Jersey. UBS has approximately 640 branches and approximately 11,800 registered persons.¹

OVERVIEW

From January 1, 2013 through June 30, 2018, UBS failed to establish and maintain a supervisory system reasonably designed to supervise 529 plan share-class recommendations in violation of MSRB Rule G-27.

UBS did not subject initial 529 plan recommendations at account opening to the supervisory controls on its order entry platform. Instead, all new 529 plan accounts were opened directly with plans and then linked to the UBS platform. At that point, the firm applied its mutual fund share-class suitability controls to subsequent 529 plan recommendations. However, those controls were not tailored to 529 plans. As a result, UBS's supervisory system was unreasonable and failed to identify potentially unsuitable 529 plan share-class recommendations.

UBS voluntarily self-reported potential issues with its supervisory system to FINRA as part of the 529 Plan Share Class Initiative announced in Regulatory Notice 19-04 and proposed a plan to remediate affected customers. This AWC recognizes UBS's extraordinary cooperation through its participation in the 529 Plan Share Class Initiative and includes an order for restitution of approximately $4.06 million plus interest and a censure, but no fine.

FACTS AND VIOLATIVE CONDUCT

This matter originated from FINRA's 529 Plan Share Class Initiative, in which FINRA member firms were encouraged to review their supervisory systems and procedures governing 529 plans and self-report potential issues to FINRA.

Background—529 Plans

529 plans are tax-advantaged municipal securities that are designed to encourage saving for the future educational expenses of a designated beneficiary.² 529 plans are sponsored by states, state agencies, or educational institutions. States offer 529 plans directly, through designated broker-dealers, or both.

Shares of 529 plans are sold in different classes with different fee structures.³ One share class (Class A shares) will typically impose a front-end sales charge but charge lower annual fees compared to other classes.⁴ Another share class (Class C shares) will typically impose no front-end sales charge but impose higher annual fees than Class A shares. Because of their higher annual fees, Class C shares may be more expensive over extended holding periods and, consequently, Class A shares are frequently the suitable option for accounts with younger beneficiaries and longer investment horizons.⁵

The cost of a Class A share versus a Class C share can be meaningful for an investor. For example, applying the fee structure of one 529 plan commonly sold by UBS during the relevant period, a customer who initially invested $10,000 in Class C shares and held those shares for eighteen years would pay approximately $1,300 more in fees and expenses than if the customer had invested the same amount in Class A shares. Moreover,

² 529 plans are named after Section 529 of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. § 529), which grants tax-exempt status to qualified tuition programs.

³ A 529 plan is structured as a trust. A customer purchases "units" in the trust. For purposes of this AWC, the terms "unit class" and "share class" are used interchangeably.

⁴ Additionally, some 529 plans reduce front-end sales charges if the aggregate amount invested meets certain thresholds-known as breakpoint discounts. Some 529 plans may also have rights of accumulation, which entitle investors to breakpoint discounts based on aggregated holdings across households or other related investments.

⁵ Class C shares may be suitable for accounts with younger beneficiaries based on the customers' particular facts and circumstances. Additionally, as of January 1, 2018, amendments to the United States tax code permit 529 plan customers to withdraw tax-free up to $10,000 per beneficiary, per year, for tuition in connection with enrollment or attendance at a public, private, or religious elementary or secondary school.

the total value of the customer's 529 plan account for this period would be worth approximately $1,500 less than an account that instead was invested in Class A shares.⁶

MSRB Rules Relating to 529 Plan Share-Class Recommendations

Because 529 plans are municipal securities, the sale of 529 plans is governed by the rules of the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board (MSRB). MSRB Rule G-19 requires a broker, dealer or municipal securities dealer to have a reasonable basis to believe that a recommended transaction involving a municipal security is suitable for the customer, based on the information it obtained through reasonable diligence to ascertain the customer's investment profile. A customer's investment profile includes, among other factors, the customer's investment objectives.

The MSRB has stated that information regarding a 529 plan's designated beneficiary should be treated as information relating to the customer's investment objective for purposes of MSRB Rule G-19. Specifically, the MSRB has stated that information known about the designated beneficiary of a 529 plan generally would be relevant in weighing the investment objectives of the customer.⁷

MSRB Rule G-27(a) requires each broker, dealer, and municipal securities dealer to supervise the conduct of its municipal securities activities to ensure compliance with MSRB rules and federal securities laws. MSRB Rule G-27(b) and (c) require each firm to establish and maintain a system, and to establish, maintain and enforce written supervisory procedures, to supervise its municipal securities activities in a manner that is reasonably designed to achieve compliance with MSRB rules and the federal securities laws.

UBS's 529 Plan Business

During the relevant period, UBS was a designated broker-dealer for 28 state-sponsored 529 plans.

UBS's Systems and Procedures Regarding 529 Plans

UBS conducted all of its 529 plan business using networking arrangements with plans. Under this model, UBS representatives opened new 529 plan accounts for firm customers directly with the plans. UBS representatives then were required to link the 529 plan positions held at the plans to an account at UBS that would track the 529 plan account using data feeds that UBS received from the plans (a mirror account). The mirror accounts also were connected to the firm's order entry platform for mutual fund transactions.

⁶ This example assumes a 5% annual rate of return for both Class A and Class C shares, no enrollment fees or annual maintenance fees and no share-class auto-conversion feature.

⁷ Interpretation on Customer Obligations Related to Marketing of 529 College Savings Plans (Aug. 7, 2006).

After the mirror account was linked to the account at the 529 plan, UBS representatives could use the UBS mirror accounts to effect subsequent 529 plan transactions. UBS would also then apply its on-platform mutual fund supervisory controls to the account. Those controls consisted of a share class calculator and automated transaction restrictions for Class C shares.

The UBS share class calculator showed representatives the estimated net value of an investment's different share classes over time. Representatives were responsible for using the calculator to recommend a suitable share class based on the customer's investment profile. The firm's transaction restrictions flagged Class C share purchases if the total holdings for the client's household would exceed $250,000—an indication that breakpoint discounts might make Class A shares more cost-efficient. In these instances, representatives had to submit an attestation for supervisor approval justifying the Class C share recommendation.

For initial and subsequent 529 share-class recommendations, UBS representatives were required to follow the firm's written supervisory procedures for 529 plans. Those procedures stated that representatives should consider the age of the beneficiary and the number of years until the funds would be needed in determining which investment option was most appropriate. With respect to share-class suitability, the procedures incorporated by reference the firm's separate guidelines for mutual funds. Those guidelines discussed relevant mutual fund share-class suitability factors such as fees, rights of accumulation, sales charge breakpoints, and time horizon. Those guidelines also stated that Class C shares were generally designed for clients who intended to liquidate their investment within 4 years. The firm's mutual fund share-class suitability training similarly stated that Class A shares were usually better for clients who planned to hold the fund as a long-term investment.

UBS Did Not Apply Its Supervisory Controls To Off-Platform 529 Plan Transactions and Did Not Adapt Its Share-Class Suitability Procedures to 529 Plans

UBS's system for supervising its representatives' 529 plan share-class recommendations during the relevant period was not reasonably designed for the 529 plan business it conducted.

UBS did not apply its share-class suitability controls to initial 529 plan recommendations. UBS's supervisors were permitted to approve new 529 plan recommendations and authorize the creation of a mirror account at UBS after a general review of the 529 plan application and the UBS new account application. These documents were not designed to detect potentially unsuitable 529 plan share-class recommendations, however, and although supervisors were required to conduct a suitability review, no specific suitability review of the recommended share class was required. In addition, initial contributions at account opening were done directly at the 529 plans and not subjected to the share class calculator or transaction restrictions that the firm required for mutual funds until April 2018.

Although UBS applied its supervisory controls for mutual funds to subsequent recommendations effected through 529 plan mirror accounts, the firm did not adapt those controls to 529 plan investments. For example, the firm's mutual fund share class transaction restrictions did not incorporate 529 plan-specific information such as the expected holding period suggested by the age of the account beneficiary.

UBS also did not adapt its mutual fund share-class suitability guidelines to 529 plan investments. During the relevant period, the firm's written supervisory procedures did not reasonably address the relationship between 529 plan account beneficiary age, investment time horizon, and share class costs.

As a result, UBS did not reasonably supervise 529 plan share-class recommendations. UBS has agreed to pay total estimated restitution and interest of $4.8 million to customers who incurred excess fees from 529 plan Class C share purchases.

Therefore, UBS violated MSRB Rules G-27(a), (b), and (c).

CREDIT FOR EXTRAORDINARY COOPERATION

In resolving this matter, FINRA has recognized UBS's extraordinary cooperation through its voluntary participation in the 529 Plan Share Class Initiative. UBS provided substantial assistance to FINRA by voluntarily: (i) conducting a qualitative review of its supervision of 529 plan share-class recommendations; (ii) self-reporting, pursuant to the Initiative, areas where its supervision may not have been reasonable; (iii) providing additional information relevant to its assessment of its supervisory systems to assist FINRA in understanding the conduct at issue; (iv) providing information about the corrective actions taken with respect to the supervisory violations set forth in the AWC, including requiring 529 plans to implement a single share class, commission-based fee structure applicable to 529 plan investments in UBS retail brokerage accounts; (v) engaging in a dialogue with FINRA about the appropriate way to identify the pool of affected customers and to calculate the amount of restitution; and (vi) developing a plan to identify and remediate affected customers more efficiently than otherwise may have been practicable.

B. Respondent also consents to the imposition of the following sanctions:

- a censure; and
- restitution of $4,059,652.95 plus interest as described below.

Restitution is ordered to be paid to the customers listed on Attachment A to this AWC in the total amount of $4,059,652.95 plus interest at the rate set forth in Section 6621(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. § 6621(a)(2). The interest amounts shall be calculated based on the date that restitution amounts for each respective customer were first incurred until a calculation date, not unacceptable to FINRA staff, reasonably proximate to the actual date of payment.

A registered principal on behalf of Respondent shall submit satisfactory proof of payment of restitution and pre-judgment interest (separately specifying the date and amount of each paid to each customer listed on Attachment A) or of reasonable and documented efforts undertaken to effect restitution. Such proof shall be submitted by email to 529Initiative@FINRA.org from a work-related account of the registered principal of Respondent. The email must identify the Respondent and the case number and include adequate documentation demonstrating that payment has been provided. This proof shall be provided by email to 529Initiative@FINRA.org no later than 120 days after acceptance of the AWC.

If for any reason Respondent cannot locate any customer identified in Attachment A after reasonable and documented efforts within 120 days after the date of the notice of acceptance of the AWC, or such additional period agreed to by FINRA in writing, Respondent shall forward any undistributed restitution and interest to an appropriate escheat account. Respondent shall follow the standard escheatment process, adhering with each state's required time frames based on the state in which a customer is last known to have resided. Respondent shall provide satisfactory proof of such action to FINRA in the manner described above, within 30 calendar days of forwarding the undistributed restitution and interest to the appropriate account.

Respondent also will identify customers who may incur or may continue to incur excess fees and expenses following acceptance of this AWC as the result of having purchased 529 plan Class C shares instead of Class A shares, where those Class C shares do not automatically convert to A shares under the applicable plan documents ("eligible 529 plan account holders"). Respondent will identify eligible 529 plan account holders, describe for them the difference in fees associated with Class C shares and Class A shares, along with the impact of those fees over time, and review with eligible 529 plan account holders their share class selection. Respondent will assist any eligible 529 plan account holder who requests that his/her Class C shares be converted to Class A shares, including effecting such conversion at no cost to the account holder where practical. Not later than 120 days after the date of the notice of acceptance of the AWC, or such additional period agreed to by FINRA in writing, Respondent shall certify completion of the steps identified in the preceding paragraph, including that conversion of share classes for any eligible 529 plan account holder who requested conversion occurred at no cost to the account holder where practical.

Upon written request showing good cause, FINRA may extend any of the procedural dates set forth above.

Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim an inability to pay, now or at any time after the execution of this AWC, the monetary sanction imposed in this matter.

The imposition of a restitution order or any other monetary sanction in this AWC, and the timing of such ordered payments, does not preclude customers from pursuing their own actions to obtain restitution or other remedies.

Restitution payments to customers shall be preceded or accompanied by a written communication, not unacceptable to FINRA, describing the reason for the payment and the fact that the payment is being made as a result of Respondent's participation in FINRA's 529 Plan Share Class Initiative.

The sanctions imposed in this AWC shall be effective on a date set by FINRA.

II.

WAIVER OF PROCEDURAL RIGHTS

Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives the following rights granted under FINRA's Code of Procedure:

- A. To have a complaint issued specifying the allegations against it;
- B. To be notified of the complaint and have the opportunity to answer the allegations in writing;
- C. To defend against the allegations in a disciplinary hearing before a hearing panel, to have a written record of the hearing made, and to have a written decision issued; and
- D. To appeal any such decision to the National Adjudicatory Council (NAC) and then to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and a U.S. Court of Appeals.

Further, Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim bias or prejudgment of the Chief Legal Officer, the NAC, or any member of the NAC, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including its acceptance or rejection.

Respondent further specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim that a person violated the ex parte prohibitions of FINRA Rule 9143 or the separation of functions prohibitions of FINRA Rule 9144, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including its acceptance or rejection.

III.

OTHER MATTERS

Respondent understand that:

- A. Submission of this AWC is voluntary and will not resolve this matter unless and until it has been reviewed and accepted by the NAC, a Review Subcommittee of the NAC, or the Office of Disciplinary Affairs (ODA), pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216;

- B. If this AWC is not accepted, its submission will not be used as evidence to prove any of the allegations against Respondent; and
- C. If accepted:
 - 1. this AWC will become part of Respondent's permanent disciplinary record and may be considered in any future action brought by FINRA or any other regulator against Respondent;
 - 2. this AWC will be made available through FINRA's public disclosure program in accordance with FINRA Rule 8313;
 - 3. FINRA may make a public announcement concerning this agreement and its subject matter in accordance with FINRA Rule 8313; and
 - 4. Respondent may not take any action or make or permit to be made any public statement, including in regulatory filings or otherwise, denying, directly or indirectly, any finding in this AWC or create the impression that the AWC is without factual basis. Respondent may not take any position in any proceeding brought by or on behalf of FINRA, or to which FINRA is a party, that is inconsistent with any part of this AWC. Nothing in this provision affects Respondent's right to take legal or factual positions in litigation or other legal proceedings in which FINRA is not a party. Nothing in this provision affects Respondent's testimonial obligations in any litigation or other legal proceedings.
- D. Respondent may attach a corrective action statement to this AWC that is a statement of demonstrable corrective steps taken to prevent future misconduct. Respondent understands that it may not deny the charges or make any statement that is inconsistent with the AWC in this statement. This statement does not constitute factual or legal findings by FINRA, nor does it reflect the views of FINRA.

The undersigned, on behalf of UBS, certifies that a person duly authorized to act on its behalf has read and understands all of the provisions of this AWC and has been given a full opportunity to ask questions about it; that the firm has agreed to the AWC's provisions voluntarily; and that no offer, threat, inducement, or promise of any kind, other than the terms set forth in this AWC and the prospect of avoiding the issuance of a complaint, has been made to induce the firm to submit this AWC.
